Recognition Award

Mary Lloyd presented an Appreciation Plaque from the Denver Samoyed Association to BOTH Carolyn AND Dave Witherspoon during the last trial at their Montagne Farms.

A big group from the Continental Divide Herding Association was present to hear of the DSA members' gratitude for all the help the Witherspoons have provided them. It has been a very exciting opportunity to see the natural ability of the dogs working with the sheep and a challenge for the owners to learn how to direct the dogs in their work.

Pictured from left to right:
Mary Lloyd, Carolyn and Dave Witherspoon,
Jane Reller and Cooper

A BIG THANK YOU from all of the DSA members who had a chance to work with you. Good luck in Missouri!

It was especially exciting as Jane and her dog, Cooper, just earned their PT that very day!!! Congratulations!

Special points of interest:

- * Terry-All KC is sponsoring a Samoyed breed seminar. See page 4 for details
- * DSA Specialty B/OB Match and Tournament date is set! See page 4 for details.
- * We're getting closer to our grocery certificate fundraiser goal! See page 3 for details.

Brenda Valetta has not returned any calls accepting the Working Sweeps judging assignment. If she doesn't respond, Denise will contact our #2 pick, Lisa Peterson. Denise is contacting various Show Secretaries and once all of the information is tabulated, an informed decision will be made.

Local Specialty '03 – No chairman yet
Voting for the judges took place last month, but unless/until someone steps up to the position of Show Chairman, we will not have a local specialty for 2003.

'02 Supported Entry with Plum Creek –

Nancy Golden

Nancy will contact Plum Creek for their deadlines and requirements.

Tournament – Nancy Golden

Anybody who would like to join the tournament committee is welcome to contact Nancy or Linda. Names can be submitted to the tournament committee and the judges will be contacted.

Ways & Means –

Still need a chair for this position.

Working Dog – Mary Lloyd

No report.

Unfinished Business –

--Jan checked with Alan Odom and all changes to the constitution/bylaws MUST go through AKC, so we need to either send the SOG or send cards to notify club members of meeting dates. Bob and Andi will note some grammatical changes to the constitution and will bring those to the next meeting. Until that time we will continue as we are now.

--Investment options –

Andi motioned we purchase two FirstBank Time Deposit accounts for 1 year terms: 1) DSA $2500, 2) DSR $7500. Motion passed.

--The DSA Achievement Award was given to Iris Clough for 2001. This will be awarded at the December meeting. Bob Sencenbaugh will arrange to get the plaque.

--Brainstorming for the direction of DSA for the 2001/2001: A geriatric/retired dog day and picnic. Fun days with no dogs included (baseball game, picnic, etc.) Maybe we could set something up quarterly, half with/half without the dogs.

New Business –

--Motion Julie Morris - DSA support trophy donations in the amount of $20 for the Southern Colorado KC shows to be held December 1st and 2nd, 2001. Motion passed.

--Informal obedience classes will start at Morse Park on Thursday evenings 7-8:30 pm. Donations will be accepted as a club fundraiser, but not required.

--Aron Baugh was introduced to the membership.

Barks –

Jane Reller – Starquest's Coup d-Essai, Cooper, got his 2nd AKC herding title Pre-Trial Test (PT).

Jan Cherne – Cloudnine's White Pharaoh, Ramses, picked up two legs towards his CD at the Mountain States Dog Training Club. He had a score of 194.5 and a 2nd place on Saturday and a 192.5 on Sunday. Ramses is owned by Charles and Nancy Kraus and Jan Cherne

-Meeting was adjourned at 9:35 PM.

Respectfully submitted,
Martha Lageschulte,
Recording Secretary

DSR Success Letters

Editor's Note: Nanook was adopted from the Adams County Shelter in March on a referral from DSR. He completed the 9-week Beginners Course at Blue Springs last night. There were about 14 dogs in the class, so yeah for the Sammy!!!! And of course his owners, Laura and Dan.

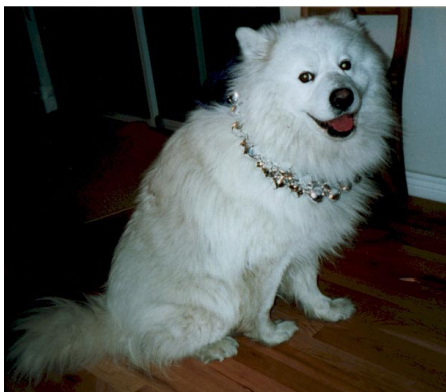

- Sue Wangerin

"Nanook"

6-6-01

Thank you for watching Nanook last night. A surprise to us, he also did the sit/stay for over 5 minutes (with 3 other dogs). Nanook ended up with 3 blue ribbons and 1 red one.

Do you know where we can get more information on Samoyed obedience in October and what we need to do before then to register, train, etc.?

Nanook wearing his jingle bells!

Thank you again for recommending the obedience training. It has helped tremendously. We need to continue to work on a few house manners (i.e., not to chew mom's bra), but otherwise he is really the greatest dog!

Laura Gene Miller

"Soda"

6-1-01

Soda is doing great! Like I said, he still hasn't eaten much, but other than that he's doing well. His behavior in the house is perfect, he doesn't even look twice at a piece of furniture. He loves to follow you around and cut you off at the pass. He rode in the car like a champ! He's been perfect around numerous other dogs including a very upset collie and the ever annoying lap dogs next door. He's marked every tree in a half mile radius of the house, and he hasn't displayed ANY destructive or chewing behaviors! We won't hesitate to call if we have more questions.

Thanks so much.

Mark and Shannon Guerber

6-9-01

Hi Sue,

Soda's a great pup. Wins the heart of everyone he meets! New things we've discovered: his tolerance (read "craving") for constant petting, exceeds one hour.

His reflexes are incredibly fast! He caught and killed a gopher on a run, before we even saw what it was. He loves his new flexi-lead! Seems the longest he can starve himself is 4 days. Bought some yogurt. Set his food on the floor, went to open it, and his bowl was almost empty in 30 seconds! Instead of wolfing down your food, we've coined "Soda-ing" down your food.

Shannon has decided (from her strong Irish roots "McGuire"), that Soda is short for Soda Bread, an old Irish staple. Soda can't tell the difference, and he always goes to Shannon first when he wants something.

Do your dogs have favorite toys? Any recommendations? He's not a big chewer and it would be nice to get him something that is really entertaining while we're out.

Mark and Shannon Guerber

"Smudge"

6-5-01

Hi Sue,

Just a note to say that Smudge is the best! We made it through obedience class, and he had a great time watching other dogs and being puppy, but so attentive. When he is rowdy, he has a stuffed cat that he throws in the air and jumps and twists. He is so agile and fast, AND strong, and a real gentleman.

Victoria Goodin

Smudge's many facets!

Sam-O-Gram's New Look

DSA's newsletter, the Sam-O-Gram, has a new look!

Since the advent of our web site, and our ability to view the Sam-O-Gram online, we have been able to reduce our monthly mailings from over 50 copies down to 19! This has saved the club a significant amount of money in terms of paper, postage and also club member's time to copy and mail the issues.

The old Sam-O-Gram format contained several areas of solid black blocks, which significantly drained toner cartridges when printed. Jane Reller and I reviewed several possible designs for the new look. We decided this template was the most readable, especially when viewed online, blending elements of the old Sam-O-

Gram, with a more simplified style. We hope your personal printer will appreciate the difference!

We also be using more color elements in the newsletter, to make online reading a bit more fun, and easier on the eyes.

Happy Reading!

Thalia Peletis - Sam-O-Gram Editor

Why: Adams County shelter

Male (Spirit) 2.5 yr House/Outdoor Boarded

Comments: Average size. Very nice dog, in all aspects! Reserved personality. Responds to basic commands and his name. Shorter, plush coat. OK with female and some male dogs, not sure about cats.

Why: Owner surrender in Wyoming, abandoned

Male (Rocks) 8 yr House/Outdoor Boarded

Comments: #41. OK with kids, cats and other small animals. Does OK with female dogs. Very people oriented, a nice boy. Crate trained. Heavy coat, needs a bath. Demands attention. Is an escape artist.

Why: Owner surrender
