Just One More Chairperson Needed!

We just need one more committee chairperson to complete the 2007 slate! Please consider volunteering for the 2008 Designated Specialty Chair position. It's not a difficult or time-intensive job, since the vast majority of the work is handled by Plum Creek Kennel Club. The complete job description is available on our club's website at: www.denversamoyed.org/Information.htm. Contact Linda Kitzman if you are interested in helping (303-794-7136).

Our Very Own Mushers!

The Rocky Mountain Sled Dog Club and the Granby Chamber of Commerce held it's 28th Annual Grand County Sled Dog Classic on January 27-28, 2007 and February 3-4, 2007.

Some of our DSA members participated in this race:

*Lana McClellan with her 6-dog Sammy team,
Bill (& Christine) Stewart with his 4-dog
Sammy team!*

*We are very proud of these members representing our versatile breed, and our club
in this amazing race!*

Hike! Hike! Hike!

Dig! Dig! Dig!

Don Duncan reaches Nome in the 2007 Serum Run

2007 Serum Run "25"
"Dream big and dare to fail" - Norman Vaughn

On February 18, 2007, the history of the Samoyed breed will be forever changed as 12 AKC-registered purebred Samoyeds and their musher, Don Duncan, embark on an eight hundred-mile journey from Nenana to Nome, Alaska. The NORMAN VAUGHAN SERUM RUN '25 is a dog team journey along the same trail mushers used in 1925 when they transported the life-saving diphtheria serum across the expanse of northern Alaska. Teams and their mushers are supported by a snow machine and driver, who accompany them on their journey. George Mabbott, of Poulsbo, Washington, is providing this service for Don and Seaview Samoyeds.

We invite you to be a part of this monumental event in the worldwide Samoyed Community. Supporters at every level are needed and there are opportunities to sponsor a canine member of the team, lend a paw, or simply share your good wishes for the journey. Please explore our site (<http://www.samoyeds4serum.com/>) and enjoy the vicarious thrill of magic and enchantment with an all-Samoyed distance team.

March 12, 2007
 They've made it to Nome!

A steady stream of mushers & snowmachiners arrived in Nome March 12th around 1 pm with a good crowd of well wishers to congratulate them for one of the toughest Serum Runs on record.

Way to go Don and your furry white friends!

You bring great pride to your fellow Samoyed fanciers!

AKC Explores Mixed-Breed Dog Participation

Feb. 16, 2007

American Kennel Club Request for Input from Core Constituency on Mixed Breed Dog Participation:

- AKC Listing Service
- AKC Companion Events

Overview of Review Process

- Blank slate approach
- Solicit input from the fancy
- Determine viability of concepts
- If viable
  - Conduct market research
  - Finalize details of tentative plan
  - Solicit second round of input from the fancy
  - Prepare a go/no-go recommendation
- Make presentation to the Board

Background: Why Explore Mixed-Breed Dog Listing Potential Benefits

The AKC Mission

- Expanding AKC's outreach to dog owners & enthusiasts
- Enhancing AKC's ability to influence legislation
- Affirming AKC's mission statement as "working to protect the rights of all dog owners"
- Promoting responsible dog ownership to a larger audience

Sport

- Exposing mixed breed dog owners to AKC and encouraging them to make their next dog a purebred by showing that purebreds consistently outperform mixed breeds (Purebreds consistently score better than mixed breeds in head-to-head competition. The U.S. Dog Agility Association has given 63 lifetime achievement awards for outstanding performance, and only three of those have gone to mixed breed dogs.)
- Increasing entries in Companion Events (obedience entries on decline since 1999; 100,000-plus spaces do not fill annually in agility trials)
- Encouraging the more than 50,000 4-H youth with mixed breeds to get involved in AKC events
- Allowing fanciers who own mixed breeds and purebreds to be fully involved in AKC events

Clubs

- Developing a potential source for new AKC club members
- Helping club events to fill with entries
- Promoting participation in club training classes

Promoting the AKC Message

- Reaching a large group of dog owners who are currently not influenced by AKC clubs and AKC values
- Forging beneficial relationships with shelters, rescue groups, veterinarians and other groups that serve purebreds and mixed breeds

AKC will survey Delegates, Presidents and Secretaries of All-Breed Clubs, Specialty Clubs, Obedience Clubs, Agility Clubs, and Performance Clubs to evaluate these potential benefits and fully identify potential risks of the project.

Existing AKC Programs that Benefit Mixed Breed Dogs Include:

- Canine Good Citizen Program
- Disaster Relief Efforts
- Canine Legislation Advocacy
- Responsible Dog Ownership Day
- School Education Programs
- Special Attractions At Club Events
- In addition, AKC Companion Animal Recovery & AKC Pet Healthcare Plan, through Pet Partners Inc., are open to both purebreds and mixed breeds.

Potential Parameters for Expanding Mixed Breed Dog Participation

- Listing service for spayed and neutered mixed breeds
- Benefits package to make listing service valuable to pet owners who may not want to compete
- Competition for mixed breed in separate classes in Companion Events
- Limitations on earning championship titles and qualifying for national championships
- Mixed breed classes optional for clubs

Mixed Breed Dog Demographics

- Based on the 2005-06 American Pet Products Manufacturers Association National Pet Owners Survey (APPM):
  - More than 31 million mixedbreed dogs live in U.S. households
  - At least 1.5 million new mixed breed dog owners each year
- 60,000+ 4-H youths involved with dogs annually
  - Approximately 50,000 own mixed breed dogs.
- Thousands of mixed breed dogs take training classes through AKC clubs and independent training facilities.
  - Based on the 2005-06 APPMA survey, 3% of all dogs take training classes annually, which equates to approximately 938,000 mixed breeds.
- Mixed breeds compete in hundreds of events sponsored annually by alternate registries and dog sport organizations

Alternate Registries' Mixed Breed Activity

- This chart lists some of the many alternate registries and dog sport organizations that allow mixed-breed dogs to compete in Companion Events. UKC holds more than 500 events a year; USDAA, more than 140 trials; and NADAC, more than 100 trials.

  - Rescue Groups
  - Veterinarians
  - Shelters
  - Boarding Kennels
  - Animal-related charities
  - Dog Food & Supply Manufacturers
  - Pet Product Superstores
  - Groomers
  - Trainers
- The inclusion of mixed breeds may help AKC form beneficial relationships with more of these groups.

Next Steps

- Please fill out the attached survey so AKC can receive your input on mixed breed participation.
- The survey will remain open until March 31 and then results will be tabulated.
- Results will be released to Delegates, Presidents, and Secretaries of All-Breed, Specialty, Obedience, Agility, and Performance Clubs.

the Veterinary Referral Center of Colorado (VRCC), was able to get a free opinion on her knee from one of their board-certified veterinarians. He strongly felt that a low-dose of anti-inflammatory medication combined with Glucosamine and Chondroitin was the best solution for Holiday. At that point we listed her on our website and on petfinder.com, and in less than a week, the Bessen family adopted her and renamed her Blizzard! Below is their latest update on Blizzard. We couldn't be more happy and relieved on how well Blizzard is thriving in her new home.

"Blizzard"

March 10, 2007

Blizzard is fantastic. She went to the vet today and the vet confirmed that she is young-ish because her eyes are not hazy and her teeth are pretty good. The vet confirmed the Rimadyl, though we are doing 1/2 a tab in the AM and PM. She's at a great weight, slightly on the lean side which is good for her injured leg. She is doing very well on the steps. I still carry her if there are multiple levels. Also, she has a quirk about wood floors because she slipped one day so now she tries to avoid them. It's funny to watch.

Blizzard has quickly settled into a routine. She sleeps on a folded comforter on the floor on my side of the bed and Ozzie (our black Labrador) is on the floor on David's side. We have soft mats laid out around the house, but Blizzard somehow opts for the carpet while Ozzie goes for all the soft mats.

Blizzard loves being outside and is already getting less stiff. Best of all--she is ALPHA! I'm shocked. When our young male lab starts rough housing with my husband, she growls at Ozzie and Ozzie will stop right away. This is more than I could have hoped for! I think it's because Ozzie spent his first year with his sister. I can't explain it, but I like it.

There are no signs of any abuse. She'll let me touch her anywhere. She does not shy from an outstretched hand. Her only bad habit is a bit of separation anxiety. I put both dogs in the laundry room for an hour and she chewed on the door frame and removed bits of wood! She now has a metal crate that we are getting her used to. Overall, she is crate trained, she's just happier if the door is open and her people are nearby.

Blizzard is turning into a beautiful dog. She is all trimmed and brushed. She looks wonderful. Blizzard's behavior and appearance have stolen our hearts; I think she's found her forever home!

I'll have to send you more photos, just not tonight. Sleep well, knowing that Blizzard is very content.

Lisa Bessen
