Morris Animal Foundation names new President

Englewood, Colo., August 2001 - Morris Animal Foundation proudly announces the election of its new president, Cheryl A. Wagner, a resident of Alpharetta, Ga. A Trustee of the Foundation since 1995, Wagner joins a distinguished list of leaders for the animal health focused organization.

As president, Wagner will help promote public awareness about the Foundation by acting as a spokesperson and representing the Foundation at public functions. She will also serve as a member of the Executive Committee. Wagner was elected president at the Foundation's Annual Meeting at Lake Tahoe, Nevada, in June.

"I feel the Foundation is at the second most exciting time in its history," said Wagner. "The first was, of course, when Dr. Morris decided it was time to do something for the animals. Today, because of our fiscal responsibility and good stewardship of donations, we are poised to make a big difference in animal health and veterinary medicine."

As chair of the development committee, Wagner has encouraged her fellow Trustees to share Morris Animal Foundation's mission with fellow animal enthusiasts. Wagner provides direct financial support for Foundation-funded studies each year. She would like to increase public support for Foundation-funded health studies by identifying people who are committed to making a difference in animal health.

Wagner is an avid dog enthusiast and a distinguished Samoyed breeder under the kennel name Tarahill. She has also owned and shown Morgan horses. A resident of Atlanta since 1991, Wagner currently shares her home with three Samoyeds.

"My ultimate goal is to put the Foundation out of business," said Wagner, a champion for all animals. "I would like nothing better than to announce that we had successfully eradicated canine cancer, colic in horses, feline leukemia, and removed mountain gorillas and others off the endangered species list."

In addition to animal health interests, Wagner devotes time to her family and to philanthropy. Her interests include education and the arts. Wagner has served as Trustee for several organizations including Eaglebrook School and the Georgia Ensemble Theatre. She has chaired the committee for the Magnolia Ball, an annual fund raising event to support the preservation of Bulloch Hall, the historic home of Theodore Roosevelt's mother. Wagner is a native of Michigan.

Former Morris Animal Foundation presidents include well known actress and animal enthusiast, Betty White, and, most recently, blind actor, composer and inspirational speaker, Tom Sullivan, who served an 11-year term. Both White and Sullivan are current Foundation Trustees.

Morris Animal Foundation is a 53-year-old nonprofit organization dedicated to ensuring a healthier tomorrow for companion animals and wildlife. Since its inception, the Foundation has funded 1,000 humane animal health studies with funds exceeding $25 million. One hundred percent of all annual, unrestricted contributions support animal health studies, not administration or the cost of fund raising. Thank You

Dear DSR,

9/24/01

Jeff and I wanted to extend an overdue THANK YOU for the beautiful new grooming table we received from your group. It was really thoughtful of all of you and has been wonderful to use with the dogs, especially changing Sweetie's dew claw bandages.

It is so much more enjoyable to groom dogs now!

It has been a real pleasure working with your group and getting to know some of the members. I've learned a lot and look forward to learning lots more!

Thanks again.

Sincerely,
Mimi and Jeff @ BG Kennels

DSR Success Letters

"Sweetie"

Good morning, Sue.

9/17/01

Thought I would give you a "Sweetie" update. She is wonderful and has fit perfectly into our family. She's sleeping with the boys. She is an amazing puppy. We can't understand why someone isn't desperately looking for her.

She is afraid of loud noises i.e.. thunder, fireworks etc. Our girls were too so this is not new to us.

Thank you so much to you and the Rescue for bringing her to our family.

The Kaze's

and the donation to you (put it in the mail on Sunday so you should have it tomorrow I would think) and will continue to sent you periodic updates. If I can swing it, perhaps we'll come "parade" on Oct. 10th. I'm VERY proud of the girl. How anyone could ever neglect her is a wonder to me.

Attached find a couple of shots I took in the last week. She'll be getting her groom on Tues., then will send a couple more of her and Drox.

Any questions or concerns please feel free to mail or call!!

Best Regards,
Kathryn

"Sissera"

Hi Debra!

9/24/01

I'm tickled to write that everything and everyone is doing great! The two cats who had their whiskers out of joint are coming around as I knew they would. "Sissy" and Drox are getting along like peas in a pod and the girl and the housemate are infatuated with each other too. grin (They sit on the couch together in the morning, have coffee and talk politics while watching the news. Sis is quite the conversationalist" and he thinks that's hysterical. We discovered that she gets the goofiest "grin" on her face when her belly is rubbed too. I can't help but break out laughing at that face.

Drox and Sissera

We've done a couple more "road trips" and she gets excited just seeing the Jeep window in back getting rolled up. She knows that means "ride".

I've mailed back the papers

"Soda"

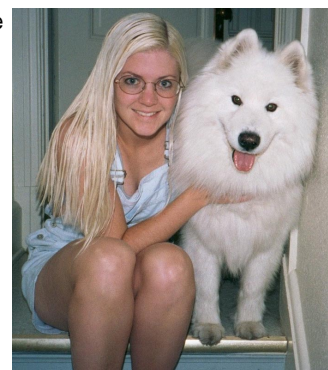

9/27/01

Hi there!

We adopted Soda back at the end of May.

As far as Soda goes, he's doing great! He goes roller-joring about 4 miles every day, has a knack for fetching, behaves well enough to be off leash in the local neighborhood (but not when there's antelope to herd! His vision and smell are incredible that he can see and/or smell them across the park about 400 meters away!) He's lean (43lbs, vet said he was about 45 when we got him), but very strong for his size. He's got two Husky friends that outweigh him by about 20 lbs, but he's the boss, funny.

Would love to make the Specialty, but both being in the military right now keeps our schedules uncertain. Attached are some pictures.

Shannon and Soda

Take care,
Mark and Shannon

Sammy Heritage Day

Denver Samoyed Association Sammy Heritage Day

On September 9, 2001 DSA held our first Sammy Heritage Day.

It was a day to have fun with our retired or veteran Samoyeds and celebrate the heritage of our breed.

What a perfect day it was! We had clear blue skies, sunny and ideal fall temperatures. For most of the picnic, many of the dogs were off lead, socializing with each other and us! I'm sure it's been some time since some of these dogs have seen so many of their fluffy white "cousins" at one time, so they had a ball too! Of course, we had a great time chatting with each other and reminiscing about our older companions! It was a fabulous day!

A BIG THANK YOU goes to Jan and Kent Cherne

for doing such a wonderful job organizing this event!

The park was lovely, and the sub sandwiches, chips and ice cream were simply yummy!

DEFINITELY AN EVENT TO REPEAT NEXT YEAR!

As the soot and dirt and ash rained down,
 We became one color.

As we carried each other down the stairs of
 the burning building,
 We became one class.

As we lit candles of waiting and hope,

As the firefighters and police officers fought
 their way into the inferno,
 We became one gender.

As we fell to our knees in prayer for

 We became one faith.

As we whispered or shouted words of

As we gave our blood in lines a mile long,

As we mourned together the great loss

Poem

I LIVE AMONG GOD'S CREATURES NOW

I live among God's creatures now
 In the heavens of your mind
 So do not grieve for me, my friend
 As I am with my own kind.

My collar is a Rainbow's hue
 My leash a shooting star
 My boundaries are the Milky Way
 Where I sparkle from afar.

There are no pens or kennels here
 For I am not confined

But free to roam God's heavens
 Among my Canine kind.

The trees are full of liver treats
 And tennis balls abound
 And Milk bones line the walking ways
 Just waiting to be found.

I drink from waters laced with gold
 My world a beauty to behold
 And wise old dogs do form my pride
 To amble at my very side.

At night I sleep in angel's arms
 Their wings protecting me

And moonbeams dance about us
 As stardust falls on thee.

So when your life on earth is spent
 And you reach Heaven's gate
 Have no fear of loneliness
 For here, you know I wait.

"The most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or touched. They must be felt with the heart."

~ Helen Keller

On September 15, 2001 the rescue committee conducted a grooming seminar for families who have adopted a Samoyed. Andi Mast and Jane Reller organized the event, and Martha Lageschulte served as our instructor. Thalia Peletis took step by step pictures, with the club's new camera, to incorporate in an instructional grooming guide that Jane will help write. We had eight students that soaked up the valuable knowledge and experience shared by Martha. We hope to have the guide completed by the end of the year and include it on the web site as well.

Watch for the November Sam-O-Gram, for group photos and before and after shots of Martha's boy, Nike, who was an excellent model for this event! It was a wonderful event and definitely worth repeating in the future!

THANK YOU ANDI, JANE and MARTHA for all of your efforts!
